Retirement Party for

Vicky Nightingale

Whichever way you look at it—with happiness or perhaps a little sadness—the day is fast approaching! March 31, 2010, will be Vicky Nightingale's last day at New Century Credit Union.

Vicky Nightingale, our dear, dear friend and coworker, and the one who is the credit union to so many of you, has finally decided to retire after 36 years. We told her the only way we would let her go, is if she promised to keep in touch and come back occasionally to help us with special projects. (She agreed!)

We invite you all to stop by to share your memories and wish Vicky a fond farewell at an Open House to be held in her honor on Friday, May 14, at the Topeka credit union office.

Vicky will want you all to come, so watch for details. Party plans should be announced in the next newsletter and on our website in the next few weeks. Or, just give us a call any time after April 15 to find out what's happening!

we miss you already!
